

The Center for International
Environmental Law

INVITES YOU TO ATTEND A DISCUSSION ON:

Transparency and Public Participation in the WTO's Dispute Settlement Understanding

Wednesday, 2 December, 15.30 – 17.30

Seventh WTO Ministerial Conference

NGO Centre, Room E

(Centre de Conférence Varembé, 9–11 rue de Varembé)

Geneva, Switzerland

The Seventh WTO Ministerial and the on-going review of the WTO's Dispute Settlement Understanding provide us with the opportunity to discuss transparency and public participation in WTO Dispute Settlement.

Join us in a discussion on the current practice relating to transparency and public participation in the different stages of the dispute settlement process. We will also discuss the on-going Dispute Settlement Understanding (DSU) negotiations, and options for a DSU review that will lead to greater participation.

DISCUSSANTS:

- Alan Yanovich, Counselor, WTO's Appellate Body Secretariat
- Marcos Orellana, Director of the Trade and Sustainable Development Program, Center for International Environmental Law
- Christiane Ahlborn, Researcher, Amsterdam Center for International Law

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT CIEL:

In Washington, DC, Marcos Orellana, +1 202 742 5847, morellana@ciel.org

In Geneva, Baskut Tuncak, +41-22-789-0500, btuncak@ciel.org